The Games Sunday-The Memphis Defeat the Riversides, and the Reds Guose-Egg the Eckfords-Other Games.

The game between the Rede and Eckfords, at Central park, Sunday, was largely attended. The spectators enjoyed the sport very much, the general opinion being that the Reds played better than upon previous occasions. The batting was heavy on their side, and the general work, both out and in-fielding, being prompt, decisive and effective, the nine making only four errors. Clinton's pitching was smooth and to the point, his easy mode of delivery appearing to great advantage. The Eckfords did their -The Democratic State convention pest, and should not feel discouraged, for they possess the elements necessary to make an active and strong nine. We congratulate the Reds upon their good playing in the game, and the satisfacion thereby afforded. From present indications, it is fair to presume that the Reds are on the way to gain brilliant games, and give Memphians a creditable sample of base-ball science. The

THE GENERAL COUNCIL.

Louden's Pid for the Pavement of th West Side of Main Street with Stone, Accepted-A Hented Debate.

Bids for Furnishing Paving Stones Protests by Bidders for Paving Contracts-Rents from City Property-Etc.

COMMON COUNCIL. The common council met in the cityhall at four o'clock, yesterday afternoon, Chairman Williamson presiding. The recommendation of the committee to accept the suggestion of the chief of the fire department relative to the building of the Main street enginehouse, and to advertise for bids, was adopted. It was stated that the buildng would cost only five thousand dollars, instead of seventy-five hundred dollars, as heretofore announced: MAIN STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

thed the following report: "MEMPHIS, July 15th, 1876. "The improvement committee recommends that the general council adopt the proposal of Mr. H. Louden to furnish a paving-stone, either limestone or sandtone, equal in derability and hardness to the sandstone found on the line of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, of which a specimen, now in the posses yard, payable in city warrants or ledgerbalances. "W. H. BATES, Chairman C. C. C.

"H. G. DENT, Chairman C. B. A." Councilman Donovan had presented a copy of the original proposal by the city under which the bids were solicited, before the contract was awarded. Councilman Blaise objected to the paper being read. MR. LOUDON'S BID being called for, was read, and is as follows: "To the Honorable General Council: "GENTLEMEN-I herewith submit s proposition, in accordance with your advertisement, for a stone pavement on the west side of Main street to the depot, to be laid with material of the same kind and quality exactly as that on Front street, the alleys and the wharf. I will fornish all the material and complete the work with dispatch, and in accordance with the specifications, for two dollars per square; or in accordance with the second part of your ordinance being the attachment to the main ordi nance, I will furnish soft material, sandstone, building stone of a nature of the material found on the Charleston railroad, and complete the work for one doliar and sixty cents per square yard. Yours, very respectfully, "H. LOUDON. "MEMPHIS, July 12, 1876."

O. H. P. PIPER'S BID being called for by Councilman Donevan, was read, and is as follows:

"Colonel Meigs, City Engineer and Improvement Committee, city of Memphis: " GENTLEMEN-The undersigned propose to furnish all material necessary and to lay down the pavement on the west side of Main street, in a similar manner to that already done under direction of city engineer, between Court and Jefferson streets (the stone to be used will be similar to that proposed by Mr. John Denie) for the sum of one dollar and fifty cents per square yard, payable in cash, or for one dollar and ninetyeight cents payable in ledger-balances or certificates of indebtedness. Otherw.se, if preferred, I will do the same work, and furnish sandstone of the quality of the specimen now in front of the Goyer block, on Main street, for the sum of one dollar and sixty-seven cents in cash per square yard, and two dollars and twenty-two cents per square yard in ledger-balances, no interest to be charged for either proposition. Respectfully, "0. H. P. PIPER."

Councilman Danovan then read an article in the Avalanche, signed "Tax-Payer," and alleging that it was paid for by Mr. Loudon. He called for fair play. Councilman Kelly said something about gentlemen being in the interest of contractors. Mr. Loudon denied that he was the author of the article, or paid for it. In his words, he denied it in toto. Councilman Donovan then said that Mr. Denie said that Colonel Kellar, of the Avalanche, said that a friend of Mr. Loudon presented the article for publiestion and paid for it. The proceedings were not very calm.

the chairman calling the members to during the warm weather. The chairman perspired freely in his commendable efforts to maintain order. The recommendation of the committee to accept Mr. H Loudon's bid was adopted, and the council adopted an ordinance instructing the mayor to draw up the contract with Mr. Loudon, he being required to give a bond of ten thousand dollars for the faithful execution of the contract.

The protests of Messrs. Fogerty & Piper were received, and ordered on file. The reports of the wharf and landing committee, as reported in the proceedings of the board of aldermen, were adopted. The council concurred with the board of aldermen in the Hastings bid. BOARD OF ALDERMEN. The board of aldermen met yesterday afternoon, President Zent in the chair. A report of the city attorney of cases against the city was received and ordered filed. The requisition of the inspector, Mr. Leffingwell, for a dry measure passed second reading, and was referred to the committee on accounts. The report of the committee to adver-

ise for bides to build the Main street engine-house was adopted. Alderman Dent, from the improve ment committee, presented bids for fur-nishing three hundred car-loads of paving stones, and were as follows: James Maydwell, twenty-three dollars per carload of twenty thousand pounds, delivered at the Charleston depot, or twentytwo dollars and fifty cents delivered on the streets; H. Loudor, three dollars per perch, delivered in parges at the landing; P. Hastings, eighteen dollars and fifty cents per car-load, delivered at the Charleston depot, to be paid for in currency, or thirty-three and a half per cent. more if paid for in scrip; John A. Denie, nineteen dollars and forty cents per car-load, in cash, delivered at the Charleston depot, or thirty three and a half per cent. more if paid in scrip.

A PROTEST.

"To the Honorable Mayor and Joint Board of Aldermen and Com "GENTLEMEN-The undersigned, in his protest, would state that he was a bidder for the pavement of the west side of Main street, and believed that only fair and honorable bidding and competition would be considered by your honorable body; that any bid not fair and ex-plicit in letter and spirit would be rejectwithout consideration. It is plain that Mr. Loudon has used a patty subterfuge to cut under the lowest bidder at any hazard, and as a straightforward competitor, dealing with an honorable public body. I protest against your receiving the bid. Its acceptance will lead to strife and contention hereafter. Hewever, if Mr. Loudon really means to furnish good, hard stone from Alabama, of such a specimen as is required by Colonel Meigs, on which I bid one dollar and sixty-seven cents cash, or two dollars and fifteen cents city indebtedness, I withdraw objections on account of untairness, and in the interest of public economy suggest that you contract with him. No disrespect is hereby intended to the honorable improvement committee. Respectfully.

MR. LOUDON'S BID. Mr. H. Loudon's bid, as published in the proceedings of the common council, was read, and the report of the improvement committee, to accept the same, was adopted; also, an ordinance authorizing the mayor to close the contract. A protest from Mr. Fogerty was re-
